

If I were starting out in trade I should want sufficient capital to enable me to advertise freely. As a rule, those people who advertise freely get the trade. If you will name the three largest advertisers in any town, I will name the three firms that sell the most goods.—P. T. Barnum.

The Nameless Soldier

Bees Rich and Howe from Bethel are teaching in districts No. 1 and 2. The Knox Board of Health organized as yet on account of the slackness of our settlement.

Good fishing so far this season. Good Cole and wife caught 130 recently.

J. C. F. Roberts of Greenwood was in town over night last week.

E. H. Herriman is talking of repainting his buildings.

A dance at the Hall this week.

E. H. Everett is painting O. J. Cole's dwelling.

M. F. Connor was at Bethel the other day.

J. C. Lucas is to suspend work on his building for a time, I understand, and go away on a vacation.

James Boardman and Archie Heath have been sick but are now better.

her dinner, at noon also a large loaf
of brown bread, and had a little brown beer. At noon the Dr. began to deal out to each and when he got to Uncle Jim Hibbard he said, "Jim will you have a slice made of some pork?"

"Yes," he replied.

"Have a piece of pork, Jim?"

"No, I don't want it."

"Now I'd like," asked the Dr., "us large roast nose?"

"No," answered Jim.

"I wish as this?" asked the Dr. (Jim had a nose and every thing).

"No, I don't want it," said, "My nose is in Alabama made it and I don't want it brought about it." The Dr. said that he had to bring out the nose, brown just before Uncle Jim Hibbard would eat it.

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor discoloration and a small dark stain near the top center. The left edge of the page shows the binding of the book, with a dark, possibly leather or cloth, cover visible. The overall tone is warm and vintage.
